Building property 2 minutes from the river beach

This can be your opportunity to be able to build your own holiday or your own permanent house, just 2 minutes from one of the calmest river that offers beautiful beaches of Castelo do Bode.

The potential of this land is multiplied by having the possibility of being divided in half and constituting 2 different properties, where you can build two independent properties.

This total area of 2,920m² that includes the implantation of more than 1,250m² and a total construction area of more than 2,000m², which means that, in addition to the private aspect, you can also create your tourism project that you've been dreaming for, it can consist in bungalows or even in glamping.

With this area of land, is also possible to build a condominium with small houses.

For all these reasons, this can be your best opportunity.
